

LIL Tip +

Hi lovely! This week's LIL Tip is a good one if your kid benefits from a visual reminder. Put a small jar of coins or stickers near a trouble zone, using it as a motivating cue with positive reinforcement.

Some examples:

- We have a pile of coins outside our daughter's bedroom door. Anytime she comes out, we take one away. She gets to keep what's left in the morning.
- Our kids sit on a penny during mealtime and get to keep the penny if we never see it until they are excused
